

- CASA GORI
- SEFRO MC ITALY

Casa Gori is a townhouse of 202 sqm over four floors in Sefro, a peaceful village hidden in the hills a few kilometres from the historic university town of Camerino and Monti Sibillini National Park.

Sefro is an ideal spot for hiking, mountain biking, fishing and many other mountain pursuits.

This stone Marche house was completely restored in 2008-2009 to the highest standard and finish and offers lovely views of village life and the surrounding lush mountain greenery.

On the ground floor there is the kitchen/living room and fireplace with access to the cantina.

On the first floor there are two bedrooms and one bathroom, a further double bedroom, bathroom, and living room are on the second floor.

Upstairs, on the third floor there is another living room with access to a wonderful terrace with panoramic views of the village and mountains.

The property has been classified in energetic class E
